

Domino game

Dominoes. Cut them out, shuffle them and ask pupils to match them up moving clockwise in a rectangle. Each character name refers to a fact or quote on the domino before.

Set 1: general review

Minimus	He first appears on a raised platform.	Old Major	One of his slogan's was 'I will work harder'.	Boxer	Decided to create a military decoration 'Animal Hero, First Class'.
All animals unanimously	She read a newspaper from the rubbish heap.	Muriel	He refused to be enthusiastic about the windmill.	Benjamin	Napoleon made everyone believe he destroyed the windmill in the night.
Snowball	Told the animals he was with Boxer when he died.	Squealer	Represent peasant farmers who destroyed own lands.	The hens	The first line of attack in the battle of the Cowshed.
Pigeons	The fourth commandment was altered to include these.	Bed sheets	Thought scenes of 'terror...were not what they had looked forward to.'	Clover	Composed a song to replace 'Beasts of England'.

Domino game

Dominoes. Cut them out, shuffle them and ask pupils to match them up moving clockwise in a rectangle. Each character name refers to a fact or quote on the domino before.

Set 2: who said ...

Frederick and Pilkington	'What is the nature of this life of ours?'	Old Major	'Can you not understand that liberty is worth more than ribbons?'	Snowball	'I have no wish to take life.'
Boxer	'Four legs good, two legs bad.'	The Sheep	'Napoleon is always right.'	Boxer	'Tactics, comrades, tactics!'
Squealer	'To the prosperity of Manor Farm.'	Napoleon	'Fools! Fools!'	Benjamin	'There lies Sugarcandy Mountain.'
Moses	'No more delays, comrades!'	Napoleon	'Shall I be allowed to wear ribbons?'	Mollie	'The whole thing will be over in a fortnight.'